MY BIRTHDAY.

Affectionately inscribed to My Beloved Daughter, Sophia, in Kansas City.

Just fifty-eight to day. And can it be? How fleet of foot is Time!—how short the years! But yesterday you were a prattling child, And I in manhood's vigor young and strong. Now you have grown to womanhood, matured In years, learned in books and skilled in business And battling with the world for sustenance, While I am tott'ring down life's western slope.

And yet my father heart as longingly Reaches out to you, my darling, and my Affections are as tenderly entwined About you now, as when a little child You trustingly nestled within my arms And sweetly slumbered all your cares away.

So quietly comes down the twilight dew.

Upon the fragrant flower beds of earth That scarce are we aware of its descent Until we behold the earlier rays Of the morrow's sun reaching down to drink.

The pearl-drop from the wakening violets, eye.

And thus silently hoary Time keeps up His steady march, e'er couthy off the years,

And we heed not the fleeting moments till

Our stooping form and wrinkled brow and locks.

Of grey tell us that we are growing old. Yes, the years slip by—one by one they go,

As noiselessly as the snow-flake's fall, but Swiftly as the eagle's flight, and surely As the arrow's course, they bear us onward

To our common goal, from whence none return.

Teach us then, Oh! God, to "number our days,

That we may apply our hearts to wisdom."

And as we advance in years may we grow In grace and in a knowledge of the Lord.

Help us to learn of Thee—Thy will to know.

In all we do Thy name to glorify. So let us live, and work, and trust, and pray,

Till we shall meet Thee and each other in

That eternity where no sorrow comes,

And the duration of our blissful peace Shall be unmeasured by the flight of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young Celebrate Their Golden Wedding.

The following unique communication will be read with interest by the many friends of the good old couple hereabouts.

(To the Editor Interior Journal.)

RAGO, KANSAS, April 1.—As I have been a reader of your welcome paper for years, I thought that a few lines from myself would be appreciated by the many readers of the L. J., some of whom are relatives and acquaintances in Lincoln, Pulaski and Madison counties, even if the grammar is bad. On Monday, the 30th of March, was the 50th anniversary of our married life, and we had what is called the golden wedding. There were 40 of our children, grand-children and great-grand-children present and Brother S. L. Young and wife, from Pratt county, and Dock Bastin and wife, from the Ninnescaw, and several of the neighbors. The dinner was one of the best that the old lady has gotten up for the last 50 years. Those readers of this who in other days have eaten at her table, know what that means. In the 50 years past we have had unto us 10 children and 45 grand-children and 13 great-grand-children, making 68 descendants. The old lady is 64 years old and if I live to see the 3d day of June next, will be 70 years old. The presents presented to the old lady were, a silver castor, a breastpin, a knit yarn cap, a vase and 2 fine linen towels. I was presented with 50 apple trees from a nurseryman and from other parties a fine set of gold-washed shirt and cuff buttons and a fine silk handkerchief. All seemed to enjoy themselves well.

There is considerably the largest acreage of wheat sown in Kingman county this year ever known and it looks better than I ever saw it at this season of the year. Respectfully, WILLIAM YOUNG.

CRAB ORCHARD.

New stock of wall paper at Chadwick, Bailey & Co.'s.

Splendid stock of clothing just received by Chadwick, Bailey & Co.

The Woman's Christian Aid Society wish all the members to be present next Thursday. Some important business to attend to.

Owing to sickness and extremely bad weather, the Crab Orchard Dramatic Society did not put their play on the stage, but the manager promises as soon he can be sure there will be good weather he will present it. There will be an afterpiece, which is very laughable.

Mr. J. R. Lawless, formerly one of our townsmen, but now of Lexington, is here to look after his property. Mrs. J. R. Bailey was visiting friends in Stanford last week. Messrs. F. W. Dillon and S. Vanderpool are quite sick. Mrs. Kate Egbert is convalescent. Willie White is down with grippe.

James Ramsey, Jr., while logging in the woods near town last Saturday, suffered a very bad accident. He was hitching his oxen to the log, when they started off before he was ready. The log fell on his leg, breaking both bones below the knee. He laid in the woods over an hour before the log was taken off of him. He is a very large man, weighing 250 pounds. Dr. Pettus set the broken limb.

The dance given by Col. D. G. Slaughter on April 1st was largely attended and enjoyed by all. It was not an April fool by any means, as many thought 'twould be, but the colonel in his genial way made it pleasant for all. We note the first set, which was a combination of lancers and quadrille, composed of the following couples: Col. D. G. Slaughter, Miss May Parish; Henry Pettus, Miss Maud Pettus; Ward Moore, Miss Susie Miller; Charley Slaughter, Miss Nannie Edmiston; Sam Tate, Miss Jennie Payne; Sam Magee, Miss Nellie Smith; Will Beazley, Miss Alice Moore; Hundl y McClure, Miss Mamie DeBorde. The first figure was quadrille and the remaining figures were lancers. Fourth set was the little children, who danced with more grace and ease than many of the older ones. The dance was wound up at 12 o'clock with the Old Virginia reel. The music was furnished by Prof. Piper and Mrs. Slaughter, which was splendid.

Toads in Rocks.

Many well authenticated stories of the finding of live toads and frogs in solid rocks are on record, and that such things are possible was demonstrated here recently, when the workmen engaged in Varley & Everill's lime rock quarry, north of the city, broke open a large piece of rock which had been blasted out, and a frog hopped out of a pocket in the centre of the stone, says the Salt Lake Herald.

Of course the occurrence created a tremendous sensation among the workmen and operations at the quarry were for the time suspended, and the movements of the frog were watched with great interest. The animal was somewhat smaller than the ordinary frog and was perfectly white. Its eyes were unusually large and very brilliant, but the frog was apparently blind.

Where the mouth should have been there was only a line, and on the feet was a dark, horny substance.

Mr. Everill at once took charge of the curiosity and put it in a tin can, but the frog died the next morning. He brought it down town and it was examined with interest by a large number of people, and it was afterward presented to the museum, where it will be preserved in alcohol.

As to feeding poultry, says a New Jersey breeder, I have come to the conclusion that there is too much corn and grain fed to produce eggs abundantly; that vegetable food is most requisite.

I have found that potatoes alone when fed to a number of fowls for a certain length of time will produce more eggs than corn alone, and consequently that the potato is the best vegetable substitute for grain.

I have also learned that barn yard fowls will not long remain in a healthy state without vegetable food, and this with me is a strong conviction.

I have reason to believe that most of the diseases prevalent among chickens and poultry come from feeding too much corn and grain, and the more they are confined in small enclosures the more need they have of vegetable food.

THE SUGAR SUBSIDIES.—This $8,000,000

that is to be paid the Louisiana planters and this half million dollars that is to be paid the Vermont sap patriots will be absolute gifts. The money will simply be taken from other people in the form of taxes upon food, clothing and necessaries of life, and turned over to these fortunate gentlemen. Why should this be done? Why should the government pay one class of men for producing sugar from cane or maple sap out of the taxes wrung from the men who raise wheat and corn and tobacco? Is sugar-growing more commendable than wheat-growing? Is sugar a more important articule of food than bread or meat?—Indi-apolis Sentinel.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

The express line between here and Danville has been discontinued, but Mr. Clark Farris still runs his stage.

The Gaither Light Infantry turned out Saturday afternoon for target practice. Their new uniforms are daisies.

The negro, Charley Owens, who cut another negro, Sam McKee, so severely on "Battle Row" not long since, has been discharged on motion of the Commonwealth.

The Lancaster Burlesque Company have arranged to give their entertainment "Ancient Order of Hercules," at Nicholasville Saturday evening, the 18th inst.

We sincerely hope that our neighbors will give the boys a crowded house.

The Georgia Hamlin Dramatic Co., arrived in Lancaster Friday morning and everything bade fair for a large audience, as the company came well recommended and their appearance attracted the attention of the people, but just as the crowd was gathering Miss Hamlin was taken suddenly ill and is now at the Miller Hotel under medical treatment.

The balance of the troupe played at the Opera House Saturday evening to an appreciative audience. Jim Allen says his time has been occupied all spring straightening up his last transaction in cattle. He purchased a yoke of mortgaged oxen and having finally, after three purchases got everybody satisfied, is ready for anything in way of trade.

A large number of horses and jacks were in the stables Saturday, but the show storm prevented a street parade.

Next Saturday is set for the show and many earnest prayers for better weather will be offered. Everybody expected. Poney Beazley bought a fancy 3-year-old gelding of John Baughman for $300.

Farmer's mouths are down at the corners in consequence of the unusual backwardness of preparations for cropping and since they will be compelled to remain here the balance of the week, it is thought she will be able to appear on the stage the latter part of the week.

The people are anxious to see her and everything is being done for her comfort.

W. O. Sweeney has returned from Cincinnati and is dangerously ill with pneumonia. James L. Duncan and wife, of Owensboro, are here on a short visit.

Homer Price, now of Knoxville, has been spending a few days with Lancashire friends. Dr. W. S. Elkin, of Atlanta, is here on a visit to his mother. Our popular juicer, S. D. Rothwell, has been confined to his room for several days with kidney trouble. Hon. J. H. Brown and family have returned from Mt. Vernon. Mr. John Duncan, who is assigned to duty as gauzer at one of the Anderson county distilleries, is here on a short vacation. Judge M. H. Rice has gone to Tennessee on professional business.

Capt. W. S. Miller was here a few days last week. Howard Rice is in Harrodsburg on business. Miss Molie Burdett, of Parksville, is visiting Miss Carrie Woods.

Your scribe has just returned from a visit to the Blue-Grass city of Kentucky.

At Richmond he was royally entertained by his friend, Col. John Henderson, who on the 2d floor of the old Garnett House, is prepared to furnish a first-class meal at reasonable prices to any wayfaring gentleman or lady, who may be passing there for that city. The colonel is proverbial for his good sense, genial manners and warm heartedness. Don't fail to give him a call if you pass that way.

Lexington is looming up grandly and bids fair to become one of the most prosperous cities of the South. Her business houses are first-class and the markets are stocked with the best quality of meats, provisions and everything that could be desired to satisfy the appetite of the most fastidious epicure.

The journals are well conducted and full of enterprise and dash. The Leader is undoubtedly the leader, although republican and published in a city thoroughly democratic.

Horse talk is indulged in to a large extent and the merits of the thoroughbreds fully discussed; every one you meet knowing the time of every prominent horse in the State, and he might say in every State.

Being young in politics, your scribe concluded to take a look at the republican party to see the horses go round; and while being only an observer, he cannot say that he made any considerable headway in political wisdom, but the animal has been attracted to the vicinity of the timber mills by prospects of rich forage, but having begun gobbling the alloway rumble at the outset of his foray, an ominous rumble of outraged tolerance is fast increasing to what promises an explosion of indignation, which'll scatter splinters skyward. On with the work of extermination and immediate success to the exterminators.

Miss Minnie Dinwiddie is at home after a six months' visit West and South.

Miss Kittie Bogle is visiting her brother, Dr. John Bogle, at Danville. Miss Mac Logan is visiting in Danville. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wingate, of Chicago, are visiting Mrs. W. L. S. relatives in Lincoln and Casey. Mr. W. L. S. is an influential railroad official. Miss Annie Belden, of Lebanon, a bewitching blonde, was called home last week by the death of her maternal grandfather. Her many friends and scores of admirers deeply regret the sad shortening of what proved so delightful a visit. Rev. John Rife and wife, of Perryville, spent a week with Mr. R. S. parishioners in this vicinity.

Mr. Rife is still the Baptist pastor here.

Mrs. Uriah Dunn was in town last Wednesday, superintending the removal by wagons of her very large collection of rare flowering and foliage plants from the pit of her late city residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn have removed to their son-in-law, Mr. John Sandidge's, near Shelby City. John Rout was in town one day last week behind a span of two-year-old mules, which drew equal to the boy with bag-pipe and monkey.

The tenth commandment was unavoidably broken by every stockman who longingly looked 'em over and priced them—but the highest offer was a little short of John's reasonable valuation.

Henry Camnitz is wrestling valiantly with the gripe and proposes to win the battle if it takes till after the garden crops are pitched. Wood Green was up on a business trip last Wednesday, after more than a week's absence and the amount of time he had to devote to his innumerable friends handshaking and answering questions bade fair to hold him over a night, when your correspondent started to supper.

Miss Alice Wright left last Wednesday to visit her cousin, Mrs. Green, at Stanford. Dr. P. W. Logan, at present hornily-handed brush-piler and thoroughbred stock man of the Milledgeville neighborhood, with his exceedingly bright youngest son, Fordyce Barker, was in town one day last week. Time deals kindly with the doctor and granger life is certainly preferable to the harassments of the pill business.

HUSTONVILLE.

The firm of Weatherford & Cook has been dissolved by the retirement of Mr. Cook. Buck will continue the drug business with Mose Cook's assistance behind the counter and Jimmy will develop a few of his very stylish and promising colts. Indications about Hustonville would lead an observer to the conclusion that aside from banking and mercantile business there is little profit in anything but horses and mules.

The Lancaster Burlesque Company have arranged to give their entertainment "Ancient Order of Hercules," at Nicholasville Saturday evening, the 18th inst.

We sincerely hope that our neighbors will give the boys a crowded house.

W. P. WALTON.

AFTER a month's terrific battle with disease and the devil, we are by the help of God again able to do some work and to attempt in a manner to thank the dear friends of the newspaper fraternity and others all over Kentucky, Virginia and several other States who have manifested so much interest in our behalf. Our younger brother, who has filled our place better than we could have done ourselves under favorable circumstances, has copied a few of the articles that gentle hearts inspired, but as we knew nothing of them until he did so and then not until days after, we are relieved of the charge of vanity that their reproduction might inspire. Thank you, dear brothers all, those whose notices now occupy valued space in our scrap-book and were not reproduced, as well as those that were. Fully if not more cherished indeed are the hundreds of letters now before us, and if, as Bro. McCarty, of the Jessamine Journal, says, we have had more than our share of affliction, we still have cause for thankfulness and gratitude, which we would like each heart to know that we feel with unspeakable intensity. May the Giver of every good and perfect gift bless you all abundantly.

If Italy decides to wall up the U. S. she cannot commence operations for six months. According to the treaty between the countries, to which the Louisville Times calls attention, that time is to be allowed the merchants of the coast and in the ports of each other and the term of one year to those who dwell in the interior, to arrange their business and transport their effects wherever they please, and that all whose occupations are for the common subsistence and benefit of mankind shall be allowed to continue their employments without molestation from the belligerents of either side. This is a most humane provision and the country that breaks it deserves to be whipped. By the way, the spectacle of little Italy growling and snarling at this great country looks very much like a fice after a bulldog. The boot-shaped peninsula could be hidden in Texas so completely it would be hard to find.

A FRIEND has sent us a beautiful, blue card, containing a handsome picture of Auditor Norman and hearty endorsement of the gentleman by Editor W. T. Havens, of Mt. Sterling, who holds the position of deputy commissioner of insurance under him. Then in plaintive terms Capt. Havens calls on his friends to support his chief and in display type exclaims, "A vote for Norman is a vote for me." We do not gainsay a word the captain says of the auditor and we know the captain himself to be a clever, excellent gentleman, but we think the people will repudiate the combination which has been sucking the public teat so long and put their seal of condemnation on the way the army of clerks and assistants are trying to perpetuate the Hewitt dynasty. With a new candidate such as Hon. R. C. Warren, the party will not be thrown on the defensive. Let us have a new deal all around.

COL. W. O. BRADLEY was elected over Congressman Wilson to the vacancy on the national republican committee by a vote of 7 to 5. No man in Kentucky has done more for his party than Col. Bradley, and his friends, whose names are legion, are delighted that his services have been so handsomely recognized. The most popular republican in Kentucky deserved the honor without a struggle and would have gotten it without opposition if the masses had had a say. The committee chose Lexington as the place and May 22d as the day for holding the convention to nominate candidates for State offices.

The last issue of the Nelson Record announces the purchase of Mr. T. N. Morris' interest in it by Hon. Ben Johnson, late speaker of the Kentucky House of Representatives. Mr. Johnson promises to keep the paper up to its high standard, which he is thoroughly capable of doing. Mr. Morris will take charge of the business department of Rev. H. C. Morrison's Kentucky Methodist, which will be removed to Louisville and be greatly improved. We are glad to know that Kentucky will not lose this excellent gentleman and newspaper man.

In an interview Senator Blackburn shows that he has "tuned down" considerably in his pronounced opposition to Cleveland since mingling with the people who love him for the enemies he has made. The Senator is personally for Senator Gorman, of Maryland, but he doesn't undertake to say now that Cleveland cannot be either nominated or elected. The political atmosphere at Washington is nearly always vitiated and the free ozone of the country helps even the most morbid cases produced by it.

WILL STERRETT'S Owensboro Mid-night Sun, after many obscurations and eclipses has ceased to shine and the hard-to-keep-down young man will go on the lecture platform and tell of "Sterrett's Troubles." It is hoped the public will be enough interested in them to give him a helping hand.

The con. con. has decided to have printed and distributed 200,000 copies of the instrument it is framing and the Danville Advocate makes the suggestion that they be printed in supplement form and furnished the newspapers, which will willingly give it free circulation with their issues. The suggestion is a good one and the best and cheapest way of getting the thing before the people. So far as we are concerned, we will send it out without charge to the State and we believe that most of the other papers will. The cost will not be greater than the expense of folding and postage and surely the matter is of enough public interest and importance for the smallest paper to incur that not very great cost.

Owing to the illness of one or two of the colored jurors, the argument in the case of Charles E. Kincaid for killing Congressman Taulbee had to be cut short Saturday and a continuance had till to-day, and it was probably very late if at all before the jury was finally given the case. The prosecuting attorney made a very bitter argument against the defendant, but "Charles'" friends here are satisfied that he ought to be acquitted and that he will be.

COL. W. O. BRADLEY, member of the national republican committee, passed through Louisville Sunday. The biggest-hearted republican in the State is now the chief of them all, as well as of the official patronage. Brer. George Denny and the others, who so shamefully and causelessly mistreated him, would, like the clipped-winged turkey buzzards, have to roost exceedingly low in future, if the colonel was not the most forgiving of men.

MALONE, the man who tried to usurp the office of Col. Lewis, so as to help defeat Col. Bradley, at Lexington, but flickered when the test came and disappeared, causing George Denny to exclaim in the anguish of his soul, "Where is Malone?" had gone to join McGinty at the bottom of the sea, where Denny himself subsequently fell with a dull thud.

THE railroad in Palestine is progressing finely and soon the strange cry will be heard, "All aboard for Jerusalem!" The "cannot ball" and "lightning express" will hardly be known on the line from Jaffa to the former city, however, as the average grade is 47 feet to the mile.

DR. JOHN D. WOODS was nominated for one of the representatives of Warren by primary Saturday. The doctor is as popular as he is brainy and this further demonstration of the former is very gratifying to his friends.

THE Frankfort correspondent of the Courier-Journal said yesterday that it is possible that the convention may adjourn this week. Yes, all things are possible, but this one is not probable by a jug-full.

THE Italian war has died a-borning. The "government of the king" has recognized that Fava has made a monkey of himself and will send him along with some of his organ-grinding subjects.

GEN. GREELEY was in Louisville Saturday. He left the weather in charge of a subordinate and that may account for the worst spell of winter since Christmas.

—The railroads own 211,000,000 acres of land, which is an area larger than six States the size of Iowa. Since 1861 no less than 181,000,000 acres of land have been given to the railroads. It is such statistics as these which make farmers' alliances.

—Zoe Gayton completed her walk from San Francisco to New York in 215 days. The distance covered was 3,395 miles and she wore out five pairs of shoes in the tramp. She made 25 miles the last day. She got $12,000 for making the journey.

—The trouble with the striking coke miners at Mt. Pleasant, Pa., culminated in riot and bloodshed, in which 7 men were instantly killed and about 50 were wounded. Over 1,000 strikers raided the Morewood plant, which was guarded by the sheriff and 64 deputies. They advanced upon the works and, according to the general report, fired upon the guards, who, after vainly ordering them back, opened a fusillade on them with Winchesters. The rioters fled, leaving the dead behind. Nearly all the killed and injured are foreigners, who swore vengeance. Gov. Pattison called out the troops and further bloodshed was averted.

—They All Failed.

—The following letter from Mr. W. A. Thompson, of New York, is peculiarly interesting:

"My wife," says he, "has been treated for her head, stomach and nervous prostration by three doctors in New York, two in Chicago, one in Providence, and a Boston physician, and at large expenses, but with no success. They all failed. But one bottle of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine helped her wonderfully." This should be used in all diseases, bacilliæ, changes of life, nervous disturbances, fits, rheumatism, etc. Acton a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. Samples free at A. R. Penny's drug store.

—The excitement caused by this great event is scarcely equaled by that produced by the great discovery of Dr. Miles—the Restorative Nervine. It speedily cures nervous prostration, but also purifies the blood, removes flatulence, stimulates the digestive organs, cures biliousness, etc. C. W. Snow & Co., of Syracuse, N. Y.; Taft and Moss, of Greenburg, Ind., and J. W. Blundell, of New York, are agents. This Nervine acts better than any thing we ever sold, and gives universal satisfaction."
